Other Buying Factors To Consider

When you're buying a home there are some obvious things you'll look for. That it has enough beds and baths, it's in your price range, and your commute won't be bad. If you have kids, the school district might also make a big difference. However, there are other details that you shouldn't overlook.

Current Market Update

It's a great time to hit the market! Inventory is really low. Homes that show well and are priced right are getting multiple offers within days of hitting the market. Now is the time to get the most money in the shortest amount of time. If you are thinking about buying, now is a great time while rates are still low.
